Dear Mr. Dulles:

We are presently engaged in making a tentative outline of the program for the 61st Annual Conference of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, which is to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, in September of this year.

About two weeks ago, we were in contact with your office by telephone, and through one of your aides extended an invitation to you to appear as a featured speaker on the morning of Monday, September 27.

On May 19, [REDACTED] called our office to advise that you would not be in the United States in September and consequently would be unable to honor us with your presence.

We can appreciate the pressures of your high office but we feel that our program for that day would not be complete without having some representative from your office, and hope that you will be able to assign your Assistant to appear as an honored speaker.

We will greatly appreciate your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Leroy E. Wike,
Executive Secretary.
